

Listed below are a variety of additional resources available to you.

Bright Start Responsive Parenting

This project is funded by the State of South Dakota Office of Child Care Services. This six-week series of classes is designed for parents who have children ages birth to three years. Classes cover a variety of topics including: discipline, temperament, and stress. Classes are FREE, and child care may be available.

Success by 6 Parenting Classes

These classes are designed to give information about how children develop and why they do the things they do. Topics include sibling issues, temperament, and childhood behaviors. Classes vary in length and are FREE.

Temperament Project

This project is funded by the Sioux Empire United Way Success By Six Program. Services provided are FREE. Learning about temperament can help with discipline issues, behavior concerns, and social development. Individual temperament consultations are available, as well as temperament screenings.

Mutch Women's Health Library

Various materials of interest to women are available for check-out at the Mutch Women's Center for Health Enrichment. Books, videos, and pamphlets cover a variety of topics including, but not limited to: parenting, stress, and health information.
